Heartfelt thanks to the participating restaurants & pizzeria and their patrons for a very successful

Dine out for Abruzzo

According to the Italian Ministry of Civil Defense, there are presently 65,280 persons displaced by the Abruzzo earthquake; 31,432 of them are living in 170 tent sites and 33,848 in hotels and private homes. In one camp, 36% of the people are foreign workers. In the city of L'Aquila, the epicenter of the quake, 24.4% of the buildings are not accessible, while in the center of the old city, 52.4% of them have been restored.

Please, Help!
